After the transaction of the regular business, the Board went into an election of Janitor of the City Buildings. The following candidates were presented for their consideration: Thomas Moore, G. J. Tieman, Robert McKeady, David Bell, James Smith,—Pummell, John Brown, R. K. Paine, F. Taylor, George Dietmar and — Werndt. On the first ballot, Rufus K. Paine was elected, having received the entire vote of the ed, having received the entire vote of the Board, with the exception of Mr. Kiersted.

Ponice Court.—Judge Lowe disposed of sixteen cases yesterday, of which the following are the most important:

Clemens Lawyee, a German recently from the Fatherland, was arraigned on a charge of burglary, having, it was proven, taken a horse from the stable of Messrs. J. & A. Obsrmyer, during the night-time, and sold it for the sum of $2. Lawyee, it appears, had been in the employ of the Messrs. Obermeyer, who, for some reason, discharged him, withwho, for some reason, discharged him, with-out paying all he claimed by $2: and he alleges that he supposed that, as his late cmployers had refused to pay him, he had a right to pay himself. He was committed in default of $500 bail for his appearance at the Court of Common Pleas.

Wm. Kirkpatrick, said to have stolen goods to the amount of $20, was committed to jail in default of bail for his appearance for further examination on Thursday.

Michael Gesavine, an old vagrant, was sent to the City Prison for six months, from which place he has but recently emerged.

Wm. Gray, on a similar charge, was sent up for thirty days. Cyrus Savage, another, but less inveterate, vagrant, was sent up for twenty days.

Thomas Fitz, on a charge of petit larceny, was sent to the Chain-gang for two months, and fined $10. Malcolm Montford, who, it is alleged, has recently committed several small thefts, was committed to jail in default of $200 bail, for a further examination on Thursday. Alfred Chatman, arrested for malicious cutting, was held over in the sum of $500, for his appearance for examination to day.

Dennis O'Brien, who acknowledged himself a thief on a small scale, was sentenced to the Chain-gang for two months.

The case of Charles Abbott, for assault and battery, was continued till Monday, the bail of the defendant being fixed at $200. KARSAS MEETING .- A citizens' meeting, called to devise plans for collecting and forwarding contributions of money and necessaries to the destitute in Kansas, convened at the Exchange-rooms yesterday afternoon. The Mayor was called to the Chair, and J.

A. Gano was appointed Secretary.

On motion, Messrs. J. W. Sibley, Geo. F. Davis and Samuel M. Haughton were appointed a committee to prepare business for the meeting. After due deliberation, they presented the following preamble and resolutions, which, upon being read, were adonted:

Wheneas: Various accounts have reached us of great destitution and suffering among the people of Kansas Territory, owing to the failure of their crops the past season, we would respectfully recommend the following resolutions, viz:

Resolved: That an Executive Committee of three, with power to fill vacancies, be appointed by the Chair, who are requested to obtain early and reliable information, as to the extent of suffering in said Territory, and who shall receive and disburse all contributions and donations made by our citizens for the relief of the sufferers, in such manner as they may deem best.

Resolved: That said Executive Committee be authorized to appoint such sub-commit-tees and agents, for said collections and distees and agents, for said collections and dis-tributions, as they may find necessary, to carry out the object of this meeting, in the most effectual and economical manner. § "Resolved: That rubscriptions be now opened for said relief, which shall be paya-ble at such periods, and in such sums as said Executive Committee may designate."

In accordance with the terms of the first

Executive Committee may designate."

In accordance with the terms of the first resolution, Messrs. Wm. Hooper, J. C. Butler, W. W. Scarborough, were appainted a committee to receive and disburse contributions made for the sufferers. On motion, Mayor Bishop was added to the Committee.

Some money had already been raised for this object, but hitherto there has been no organized plan for collecting or disbursing this object, but hitherto there has been no organized plan for collecting or distursing the contributions of our citizens. Now, those who are disposed to aid in relieving the pressing and sore destitution of those distressed sufferers, can have the assurance that their donations, of any and every kind, will be faithfully and judiciously applied. The word comes with unmistakable force, that our countrymen are actually starving. that our countrymen are actually starving— and are naked. all our lectures and classes free to the workingmen. At present we have to charge five cents, but no more, to each person attending a lecture. At present, also, we can have but one class—an English grammar-class—the very peculiar manner of instruction employed in which, is bringing to it a very respectable and intelligent order of young men. By-and-by we must have classes in science conducted upon the same commonsense principle. We employ no books, and give no tasks to the tongue, but address ourselves to the understanding, the memory and the hand. The Philosophy of Life in Paris-Epicurean

Existence in the French Capital.

Life in Paris, says the correspondent of the Picagane—the life all of us lead—never looks beyond to-day's sunset. We give no thought to the future. If we have much, if we have little, it makes no difference, all goes into that ever-yawning gulf, Life in Paris. There is no such thing as taking care of the pennies here; for 'tis in pennies our income is wasted away a penny to this waiter, a panny to here; for 'tis in pennies our income is wasted away; a penny to this waiter, a penny to that waiter, a penny to that waiter, a penny for the tothat waiter, a penny for the footcricket, a penny for your cane, a penny for your hat, a penny for your cane, a penny for your hat, a penny to the hackman, a penny to the door-opener, a penny to the barber's boy, a penny to your mistress's maid, a penny to your mistress's porter.

Pennies fly from you when you sip your morning coffee—at breakfast—when you take your demi tassa, and when you put on your liquid night-cap. Money steals away as insensibly as time and as life. Then so many things, elsewhere regarded as the luxuries of life, are our prime necessaries of life, which we must have, even if we go without our we must have even if we go without our bread and our cheese. Do not ask aught of ns when we die. Our purse is empty, our boxes are empty, the boxes themselves are pawned.

Why should we save? Our mistress is a daughter of Danaus. We are childiess. We extricated ourselves from embarrassment extricated ourselves from embarrasament yesterday which seemed insuperable—and the day before that. Why, shall we be "incky" till our passing-bell toils? Besides, this wine shall not delight our palate to-morrow as it does to day, these viands shall not then seem half so succulent, this fruit half so flavored; then have yes shall have lost all their brightness, har cheeks all their bloom.

And who knows to morrow? These twinges in my fingers, this cold in my throat, this general debility may be Death's vanguard, and this very hour may be my tomorrow, my last to morrow. So we crown this hour with all the roses our purse can afford, and when they wither we'll repleased them, with rest roses if we be not withered. them with iresh roses, if we be not withered currelyes.
